Lipase 75™

DAIRY FREE | GLUTEN FREE | SOY FREE | VEGAN

Augments Salivary, Gastric and Pancreatic Lipolytic Enzymes*

Lipase 75™ provides highly purified, non-animal derived lipase enzymes to augment the body's own enzymes in assimilating dietary fat and fat-soluble nutrients when taken with meals, and in maintaining healthy triglyceride metabolism when taken between meals.*

Clinical Applications

- Contains only lipase for more targeted digestive and systemic purposes*
- Assists in the digestion of fats and oils in foods including, but not limited to, hard cheeses, butter, salmon, flax seeds, avocados, coconuts, chocolate, olive oil, creamy dressings, fried foods and baked goods*
- Increases essential fatty acid and fat-soluble vitamin availability and absorption*
- Helps reduce fatigue and cravings for high-fat foods due to poor fat digestion*
- Protects against endotoxin production from undigested fat in the colon*
- May relieve occasional gas or irregularity resulting from an inability to digest fat*
- Assists in maintaining healthy cardiometabolic parameters including cholesterol/triglyceride levels and weight management*
- Supports the use of fatty acids as an energy source, to form cell membranes, to enable hormone production, to promote healthy brain and nerve function, to nourish the skin and to maintain a healthy immune system*
