Hepatic Detox™

DAIRY FREE | GLUTEN FREE | SOY FREE | VEGAN

Supports All Phase 2 Detox Pathways in the Liver*

Hepatic Detox™ provides a comprehensive blend of detox-inducing botanical extracts including Broccoli Sprouts, glutathione precursors including N-Acetyl Cysteine, all-natural B-vitamins and proteolytic enzymes to enhance all six pathways of the second phase of the liver detoxification process.*

Clinical Applications

- Assists the liver in detoxifying environmental contaminants, metabolic end-products, food additives, microbial toxins, and drugs reducing the build-up of toxic substances within the liver*
- Combats free radicals produced during phase 1 detox protecting against liver damage*
- Helps maintain balance by slowing down phase 1 and stimulating phase 2 pathways when needed to avoid an overload of highly toxic, reactive intermediates*
- Encourages glutathione conjugation of fat-soluble environmental toxins such as heavy metals and airborne pollutants by providing precursors for and promoting production of glutathione*
- Provides natural B-vitamins and methyl donors to support methylation and acetylation of aromatic hydrocarbons (tobacco smoke) and phenols (petroleum)*
- Advances proper metabolism of adrenal, sex and thyroid hormones by supplying bioavailable sources of sulfur for use in the sulfate conjugation pathway*
- Contributes magnesium and broccoli glucarate and sulforaphane to help boost the glucuronidation pathway's detoxification of commonly prescribed drugs*
- Augments the body's digestion of dietary protein releasing glycine for the amino acid conjugation of xenobiotics found in food, medications and personal care products*
- Aids in relieving symptoms of slow or inactive phase 2 detoxification such as chemical sensitivities, drug intolerances, and chronic fatigue, headaches and other conditions
